

Terms and Conditions for the University of Law SQE Incentives

Effective from: 8 March 2022

These terms and conditions (these “Terms”) apply to the discounts or other incentives which may be available in connection with the range of SQE Courses as we have specified in the Schedule to these Terms (“SQE Courses”) and which are made available to students of The University of Law Limited (No. 07933838) (the “University”).

The list of available SQE Incentives for the SQE Courses and any eligibility criteria you are required to meet are set out in paragraphs 1 and 2 of these Terms (“SQE Incentives”). These Terms set out how any SQE Incentives will be applied to your University account, any eligibility requirements for the relevant SQE Incentives and your and the University’s respective obligations in relation to the SQE Incentives that the University offers.

You should pay particular attention to the provisions of paragraphs 2, 4, 5, 6.1, 6.2 and 6.3 of these Terms.

For the avoidance of doubt, you remain bound by these Terms in addition to the financial and contractual obligations of the University’s terms and conditions applicable to your enrolment on a SQE Course with us which are available on the website at www.law.ac.uk (the “SQE Terms and Conditions”).

1. SQE Incentives

- 1.1. The SQE Incentives set out in these Terms are only available in connection with the SQE Courses (as defined above).
- 1.2. The Schedule to these Terms (“Schedule”) sets out the SQE Incentives that are available for each SQE Course. Please note that the SQE Incentives which are available may vary depending on the mode of study (online or face to face; full or part-time study) which apply to your chosen SQE Course.
- 1.3. Where the Schedule refers to an “Alumni Discount,” “Postgraduate Scholarships” and “International Bursaries” please note that separate terms and conditions will apply to these discounts which are available at <https://www.law.ac.uk/about/alumni/loyalty-scheme/> <https://www.law.ac.uk/study/scholarships-bursaries/> and <https://www.law.ac.uk/students/international/international-scholarships/>.
- 1.4. You will only be entitled to receive those SQE Incentives set out in the Schedule which are relevant to your SQE Course. You will not be entitled to receive any other award, scholarship, bursary, discount or incentive offered by the University in respect of any other course.

2. Eligibility Criteria

- 2.1. You may be required to meet certain eligibility criteria for a particular SQE Incentive. Where this applies, we have specified this in the Schedule (“Specific Eligibility Criteria”).
- 2.2. In addition to the Specific Eligibility Criteria, you are also required to meet the following general eligibility criteria (“General Eligibility Criteria”):
 - 2.2.1. have accepted your place on one of the University’s SQE Courses;
 - 2.2.2. be able to meet all other living and other costs incurred during your course (including amongst other costs: accommodation, subsistence, additional courses materials and books); and
 - 2.2.3. not otherwise be ineligible to receive the SQE Incentive under the provisions set out in paragraph 2.3.
- 2.3. Even if you meet the Specific Eligibility Criteria and General Eligibility Criteria, you will cease to be eligible for an SQE Incentive if at any time you:
 - 2.3.1. are or become an employee of the University or a family member of an employee or an agent of the University or any of its associated, affiliated or subsidiary companies and, as a result, are able to access the benefits of a discounted course fee for any University of Law course; or
 - 2.3.2. submit an application for an SQE Course which is misrepresentative or fraudulent.

3. Application of your SQE Incentive to your account

- 3.1. With the exception of Postgraduate Scholarships , if an SQE Incentive is available to you and you meet the Specific Eligibility Criteria and General Eligibility Criteria, the SQE Incentive will automatically be applied to your University account. With regards to Postgraduate Scholarships, you must apply for these SQE Incentives via the website as described in clause 1.3 of the Terms and, if your application is successful, these SQE Incentives will also automatically be applied to your University account.

4. What happens if you receive an SQE Incentive but decide to: defer, transfer or intermit your place on a SQE Course?

- 4.1. If you are eligible for a SQE Incentive but you subsequently decide to defer, intermit or transfer your place on your SQE Course, you may no longer be eligible to receive your SQE Incentive. This is decided at the University’s discretion.
- 4.2. Please be aware that if you are no longer entitled to a SQE Incentive, you will be responsible for payment in full of the fees relevant to your SQE Course (including for any examination preparation courses that you may require) without any discount or incentive applied.

4.3. Please also refer to your SQE Terms and Conditions for further terms applying to deferral, transfers and intermission.

5. What happens if you are given an SQE Incentive but decide to cancel or withdraw from your place on a SQE Course?

5.1. If an SQE Incentive has been applied to your University account but you subsequently decide to cancel your place on your SQE Course:

5.1.1. you will no longer be able to receive the benefit of any SQE Incentive offered which you have not yet used (for example only, any free place offered on an examination preparation course); and

5.1.2. depending on your right to a refund on your SQE Course fees as detailed in the SQE Terms and Conditions, you will only be entitled to a refund of any sums towards your SQE Course Fees which you have actually paid to us (we will not pay to you any sum of money which we apply to your University account in respect of any SQE Incentive).

5.2. Please also refer to your SQE Terms and Conditions for further terms applying to cancellations or withdrawing from your course.

6. General

6.1. SQE Incentives are awarded at the sole discretion of the University and the University's decision on any SQE Incentives available to you shall be final.

6.2. The University reserves the right to withdraw any part of the SQE Incentives at any time.

6.3. The University reserves the right to amend these Terms at any time. Any amendments will be published on the University's website and notification given to you of any such changes that affect you.

6.4. You must notify the University immediately of any change in your circumstances which may affect your eligibility to receive a SQE Incentive. If you fail to do so, the University will be entitled to recover or adjust (as appropriate) any associated SQE Incentive or benefit. The University shall also be entitled to recover or adjust any SQE Incentive given in error.

6.5. The University reserves the right, with reasonable cause, to exclude applicants from a SQE Course and/or withhold SQE Incentives for violating any of these Terms and/or any other applicable University policies or terms and conditions including (without limitation), the SQE Terms and Conditions. The University policies are available on the University's website at <https://www.law.ac.uk/policies/>.

- 6.6. The University may be responsible to you for foreseeable loss and damage caused by the University. If we fail to comply with these Terms, we are responsible for loss or damage you suffer that is a foreseeable result of our breaking these Terms or our failing to use reasonable care and skill, but we are not responsible for any loss or damage that is not foreseeable. Loss or damage is foreseeable if either it is obvious that it will happen or if, at the time the contract was made, both we and you knew it might happen, for example, if you discussed it with us during the application process.
- 6.7. We do not exclude or limit in any way our liability to you where it would be unlawful to do so. This includes liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence or the negligence of our employees, agents or subcontractors; for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.
- 6.8. Even if the University delays in enforcing these Terms, the University can still enforce them later. If the University does not insist immediately that you do anything you are required to do under these Terms, or if the University delays in taking steps against you if you break these Terms, it will not mean that you do not have to do those things or prevent the University from taking steps against you at a later date.
- 6.9. These Terms (including any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with these terms) are governed by English law and are subject to the jurisdiction of the English courts.
- 6.10. The University is The University of Law Limited (with company number 7933838) whose registered office address is 2 Bunhill Row, London EC1Y 8HQ.
